

Resources and Support

Advocates offer information to victim/survivors in the form of books, websites, and educational brochures. We also offer referrals to help victim/survivors identify services or support beyond those provided by Waypoint.