

Individual Counseling

Waypoint offers one-on-one visits with Advocates who provide victims/survivors with non-judgmental emotional support, exploration of feelings, assistance with safety planning, and information about options and resources available.